

The Newbie Checklist

Contributed by Chad Cook
Thursday, 04 December 2008
Last Updated Thursday, 04 December 2008

Hey Guys, If you are targeting the "Make Money" niche, and want to help out your customers... I have just what you need! I found this the other day, and I wanted to let you know about it. Before I get into what the offer is, I want to first say that most profitable sub-niche in internet marketing is targeting the new crowd, newbies. There is so many new people coming into this market, and they are looking for easy, and useful information for them to get started with. So that brings me to the NewbieChecklist w/ PLR, its great package that offers everything you need to start building a list of buyers, and target the newbies. :) I am going to let the video explain the deal... Affiliate Video Brander This is a perfect package to help out newbies, because its so simple. I am not kidding when I tell you that its so much easier to learn from a simple checklist than a long drawn out ebook… So give your customers what they want with these checklists. You can easily brand them and put out as your own, and start helping your clients and customers out… With these checklists you can…

- Add them to your existing product and INSTANTLY increase the value and effectiveness of your product. Your customers will thank you for it!

-

- ReBrand them and sell them in a neat little bundle like this with Resale Rights and start earning an extra income on the side without effort!

- E-mail your list for a quick (huge) turn-around for your purchase price, infact you are start making a HUGE return right now!

- Add this to your membership site, and help out your customers while adding huge value… without effort!

- Create an entire new product based around these checklist, and create a new revenue model easily!

- Use them as a simple coaching program. Every week they get a new checklist, and person coaching…

- The options are endless!